

SNEC Travel Award Recipient

To present at the annual AFS meeting in August 2019

Rebecca “Becca” Colby

- B.S. in ecology & evolutionary biology (UConn)
- Toolik Field Station (North Slope, AK) - technician
- CT DEEP Marine Division, shad & sturgeon projects - technician
- MiDNR/MSU Black River Sturgeon research facility - technician

PhD student at Uconn – migratory physiology of juvenile Alewives

- Mechanisms for euryhalinity
- Preparation for outmigration
- Impacts of stream connectivity

That's gonna be tough to swim through...

Other titles/involvement:

- Instructor for SNEC R workshop (yesterday!)
- Assistant Director of Uconn WiMSE (Women in Math, Science, and Engineering) Learning Community
- Undergraduate Research Experience Coordinator for Uconn EEB Dept.